

easyJet extends its 16-year relationship with Europcar Mobility Group, as preferred partner

easyJet has announced today that it has renewed its 16 year partnership with Europcar Mobility Group; an industry first media and marketing partnership through which easyJet passengers will benefit from exclusive Europcar car hire rates and preferential offers, under a 2-year contract with an option to extend 1 year.

Andrew Middleton, Commercial Director at easyJet said:

"I am delighted to be extending our relationship with Europcar Mobility Group, Europe's largest car rental provider, who will offer our customers exclusive rates as our preferred partner."

"Both companies share the same passion for providing customers with great value and an easy experience. Our innovative approach harnesses each partner's unique strengths to provide the best option for travellers renting a car in Europe".

Nick Harwood, Group Sales Director at Europcar Mobility Group said:

"We're proud to extend our sixteen-year partnership with easyJet into 2020 and beyond. Through our partnership, our Europcar brand will offer easyJet passengers exclusive offers through both offline and online sales channels. We look forward to continuing the success of our longstanding relationship with EasyJet".
