

Europcar Mobility Group chosen as ‘lead partner’ by Rentalcars.com for Ryanair platform

Following the recent appointment of Rentalcars.com as the exclusive online car rental provider to Ryanair for the next three years, Europcar Mobility Group has been confirmed as its ‘lead partner’.

This unique partnership will see Europcar’s car rental services, provided by Rentalcars.com, promoted exclusively through offline channels, such as in-flight announcements and boarding cards, offering exclusive discounts to Ryanair customers.

Mark Slater, Director of Global Supply at Rentalcars.com said: “Europcar Mobility Group was selected as the lead partner for our Ryanair branded service because it demonstrates the same ideals of providing hassle-free, great value customer service to our mutual customers.

With brands including Europcar, GoldCar and InterRent; Europcar Mobility Group is one of the largest and most respected car rental provider in Europe & beyond. As such it will be able to provide consistent and competitive rates to all of Ryanair’s European destinations.”

Nick Harwood, Group Sales Director at Europcar Mobility Group added: “It’s heartening to see that the hard work and commitment we put into continually strengthening our network of mobility solutions has been recognised by Rentalcars.com. Through this new three-year partnership, we look forward to providing Ryanair customers with fantastic value, seamless, car rental via exclusive offers.”
